POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

ADMISSIONS 2026 - 2027

About the Institution

St. Joseph's College of Commerce, originally a part of St. Joseph's College, was established in 1882 and is managed by the Jesuits—a global Catholic religious order with a strong commitment to education. Other premier Jesuit institutions in India include Loyola College, Chennai; St. Xavier's College, Kolkata; and St. Xavier's College, Mumbai. The Department of Commerce was founded in the parent institution in 1949 and later became an independent college in 1972 under the name St. Joseph's College of Commerce. The college is recognized under Sections 2(f) and 12(B) of the UGC Act and was granted autonomous status in October 2004. It was conferred the status of a "College with Potential for Excellence" by the UGC in February 2010 and currently holds an A++ grade from the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).
